

Captain Jonathon David Mann
27th April 1942 – 27th August 2025
Roll No.11

Jonathon Mann was born in the United Kingdom on 27th April 1942 and moved to South Africa with his parents shortly after the end of the Second World War.

Jonathon undertook his pre-sea training at SATS General Botha before taking up an apprenticeship with Blue Star Line of the United Kingdom.

After gaining his Second Mates Certificate he sailed on South African ships.

Jonathon married Madeleine in 1965 and migrated to Australia in 1967. He was originally employed in the Drawing Office of BHP Whyalla for two years, before taking up sea-going employment with the BHP Fleet.

Jonathon joined the Reef pilots in 1989 and retired in approximately 2009. Jonathon resided in Medowie NSW in his retirement.

Biographical Note supplied by Captain Peter Hay Roll No.146