

Commander Ronald John Cameron RAN Ret'd
1943 – 15/01/2023
Joined the League 24/06/1986
Roll No.49

Ron enjoyed a long career in the RAN, joining as a sailor in 1959 and being commissioned in 1968. After serving in the Operations area as a RP for many years, Ron completed the first Principal Warfare Officer (PWO) course in 1972. His subsequent service included exchange time with the Royal Navy, service as a Anti Submarine Warfare (ASW) specialist in RAN fleet units and Joint Operations, and postings as XO of HMAS Hobart in 1980 and XO HMAS Watson which he later commanded for a period before leaving the RAN in 1987. After leaving the navy, Ron settled in Sydney's eastern suburbs and pursued a number of business ventures before retiring a few years ago. Father of Matthew and Denise and devoted husband of Glenis.

Rear Admiral Simon Cullen RAN (Ret'd) President Naval Offices Club of Australia